

CP – 8.4.1

INFORMATION SECURITY

Related Board of Trustees Policy: BP 8.4

OPR: Vice President for Administration

Approved: September 28, 2021

Previous Editions: None

INFORMATION SECURITY

The College ensures a secure computer technology infrastructure that meets all North Carolina Department of Information Technology requirements to include but not limited to confidentiality, integrity, and availability of data.

The Dean of Technology Services serves as the College's Chief Information Officer (CIO). The CIO responsible for developing, monitoring, and enforcing information security Policies, Procedures and internal controls. Information security protocols are delineated in the College's Information Security Manual.