Minor Student Admission Instructions:

Craven County Students: Go to your last high school. Have them fill out the College & Career Readiness Disciplinary Disclosure form and get an Alternative Education Referral Form from the high school. Take the Alternative Education Referral Form along with the College & Career Readiness Minor Application to get notarized at the Board of Education.

Students from Outside of Craven County or Out of State: You will need to obtain a signed official withdrawal/release from your last school attended and have the previous school fill out the College & Career Readiness Disciplinary Disclosure form. You will also need to complete College & Career Readiness Minor Application and get it notarized.

Home School Students: Need to obtain home school state approval form with school identification number. You will need to obtain a withdrawal letter from the administrator of the homeschool on letterhead with the school identification number stating that the student has been withdrawn from the home school and the last date attended. This form needs to be notarized. You will also need to complete College & Career Readiness Minor Application and get it notarized.

Once required forms are complete and ready to be turned in to the College & Career Readiness office, call to schedule a meeting with a CCR Coordinator

Call College & Career Readiness office at (252)638-7265 to schedule an appointment.

At least one parent/guardian and the minor applicant must be present at the meeting.
